Cablegate airport reading

WikiLeaks released hundreds of cables on Fri. sent from the U.S. embassy in Prague to Washington in 1992-2010. Most entertaining was the one on the CR's most influential women, which was jumped on by Blesk. Also mentioned by the Czech press was the rise in corruption and the decline in the ability of the government to combat it. Interesting to businesspeople are remarks by former Amb. William Cabaniss about the Telecom privatization, the "unfortunate Boeing blunder" at Aero Vodochody, and ODS's ability to benefit from "overpriced or unnecessary construction projects." Or the comment about "continued, heavy support from the \(Prague\) airport for ČSA." It's also interesting to read what Jan Fischer told AmCham about the Czech political system being broken. Alas, all the newly released Prague cables were unclassified, and anyone expecting anything of any real significance will be disappointed.
