

A daily e-mail bulletin of Czech wit & wisdom. For your free subscription, write to subscribe@fsfinalword.com

Prince Sleepyhead's latest adventure

It's hard to pinpoint when Karel Schwarzenberg's credibility reached the point of no return, but it was perhaps when he nearly fell off his chair during David Rath's televised speech to Parliament. It would normally be ill-bred to kick such an erstwhile idol when he is down, but Schwarzenberg remains vice PM, foreign minister and chief Kalousek apologist, so all criticism is fair game. It's the overpriced IT contracts at his ministry that are the latest subject of concern. Schwarzenberg has devoted nearly as much attention to Pussy Riot as to his ministry's own corruption scandal. It might be possible to accept the excuse that the "system is broken" if the whistleblower in the matter hadn't been threatened on the street by a Russian-accented man, but the slightest chance that the foreign ministry's IT system is being messed with by the Russian mafia or Russian spies should be enough to wake up even Schwarzenberg.

„Reaching tomorrow's leaders... Today“

Project Eurocampus guarantees permanent communication with university students in the Czech and Slovak Republic and brings its advertisers highly valued exposure to students.

INFOCENTRES – UNIBOARDS – MAGAZINE Eurocampus CR – PRODUCT SAMPLING
– STOCK MARKET CHALLENGE

www.eurocampus.cz

www.campuschallenge.eu