

A daily e-mail bulletin of Czech wit & wisdom. For your free subscription, write to subscribe@fsfinalword.com

Ištvangate 2

Parliament moved up the confidence vote to next Wed., which gives Senior Olomouc State Prosecutor Ivo Ištván just six more days to set a trap for any MPs planning to take a bribe in exchange for their vote. Ištván was so eager to prosecute the three ex-MPs from the coalition for selling their seats that he'll surely want to apply the same scrutiny to MPs who might sell out to the Zeman government. Never mind that the Supreme Court said that such behavior is okay, as long as it's done in protected bribe zones. Ištván can still arrest them, put shackles on them, humiliate them with a perp walk and cause them to lose whatever cushy jobs in state companies they were offered. Better yet, he can wire the bathrooms and smoking corner, which aren't court-protected bribe zones. Perhaps his friends from the NSA can even help him track any last-minute vacation bookings. Not that we want to give Ištván any ideas, of course.

Read this later today in Czech

Přítomnost

od roku
1924

Rozhovory / Komentáře / Recenze
www.pritomnost.cz

The English Zone

Interviews / Currents / Reviews
www.new-presence.com