Babiš on vacation with Blesk

Andrej Babiš is a godsend for the tabloids. There are so many angles to hit him from. He's a politician who refuses to admit he is one; he's a finance minister with conflicts of interest coming out the wazoo; he's a company owner with Kč 14bn in state contracts since 2007; he's a Slovak who chose another Slovak to run for Prague mayor. He's also a Keynesian trickster who is waging a friendly media battle with the Final Word over his budget sleights of hand. Blesk tabloid has so much to choose from if it wants to go after Babiš in the same way that it went after Miroslav Singer, Miroslav Kalousek, Stanislav Gross and Zdeněk Bakala! Yet day after day, all we see from Blesk are approving stories of Babiš with his lovely wife on vacation in the south of France. So this is why Daniel Křetínský and Martin Roman paid Kč 4.7bn for Ringier? To kiss up to Babiš? If Křetínský is Roman's bitch, it seems that Roman is now Babiš's.
