Sobotka's pimp

Andrej Babiš made it through an hour-long televised debate yesterday with Miroslav Kalousek without once mentioning lawyer Radek Pokorný or Bison & Rose PR agency.

Babiš usually finds a way to slip them into the conversation, because they (and the ČSSD they represent) are his real political enemies, not TOP 9.0%. MFD more than compensated for Babiš's remissness by devoting a front-page story today to Pokorný's conflicts of interest and by mentioning Bison & Rose in a commentary. MFD is targeting Pokorný because he's Sobotka's true Achilles heel. Whereas Babiš is in a clear position of superiority over his fixers (Radmila Kleslová, Jaroslav Faltýnek), and whereas Mirek Topolánek was in a partnership with Marek Dalík, Sobotka is the subordinate in his relationship with Pokorný. If Pokorný goes down, Sobotka will be lost without him. That's the fate of many a prostitute who becomes too dependent on a pimp.
