Sobotka's next eleven months

They're building a gallows outside Lidový dům, and I've got 11 months to go
It's a real one this time with my name on the noose, I've got 10 months to go
Rozbořil's still hanging in the air, it's my turn now, just nine months to go
Ištvan and Šlachta are poking into OKD, with just eight more months to go
Lidovky writes about Pokorný, kmotři and me, I've got seven months to go
Chovanec is tightening the knot and Babiš is at the lever, half a year to go
How dare they say my referendum was a swindle, just five months to go
Merkel wants her quotas, and I can't tell her no, I've got four months to go
Kellner is balking and won't give me the funds, three more months to go
My chances are fading, ANO's rating is rising, I've got two months to go
Surely they'll leave me the prime minister's post, only one month to go
The voting is over and the numbers are in, plop, what a way to go.
