

A daily e-mail bulletin of Czech wit & wisdom. For your free subscription, write to subscribe@fsfinalword.com

Pokorný and OLAF

Based on the information available, there's reason to believe that the Stork's Nest subsidy wasn't in order and constituted a violation of Czech and EU rules. Likewise, there's reason to believe that Andrej Babiš's political enemies took advantage of this situation to create a scandal where there otherwise wouldn't have been one if Babiš hadn't entered politics. The next logical question is, Who are these enemies? Babiš wasn't charged until Oct. 2017, but he told Právo on Sat. that the "chief godfather" of then-PM Bohuslav Sobotka was already going around Prague in 2016 saying that he (Babiš) would be charged. This can only be interpreted to mean lawyer Radek Pokorný. This, too, is believable, given ČSSD's control over the police. Where Babiš enters a grey area is when he suggests that OLAF is part of the conspiracy against him. Are people related to ČSSD able to influence the actions of OLAF, or is Babiš merely creating a smokescreen? This is now a question for Brussels.

Read this later today in Czech  Find us on Facebook

HOW MUCH MONEY
DO YOU HAVE TO GIVE TO WIN A PUBLIC TENDER?

A hundred crowns each month is enough. Become a member of the Transparency International Club. Your financial subsidy helps us fight corruption and establish fairer working conditions in the sphere of public affairs. More on www.transparency.cz/klub

 TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL | Česká republika