Covid passports and Operation Delta

On the same day that covid passports take effect across the EU, the Czech cabinet is to decide whether to ban nonessential travel to more countries. None of the new black spots are EU countries, but it is no doubt only a matter of time before some of these are added to the list. As a precursor of what is to come, Germany banned most arrivals from mainland Portugal as of Tues., regardless of vaccination status. Yet the EU's three presidents declared with great fanfare on June 14 that, "The EU Digital COVID Certificate is a symbol of what Europe stands for... [and] will again enable citizens to enjoy this most tangible and cherished of EU rights - the right to free movement." Did they know they were lying, or have events snuck up on them? We concluded in Jan. that the much-vaunted covid passports could be a smokescreen and that the covid elite might have merely wanted us to think they intended to give us our lives back. That's just about when Operation Delta was launched.
